

Code of Ethics

As a member of the Rocky Mountain Gas Association, I agree to abide by the following code of ethics:

1. To promote the practice of good principles of contracting and to protect the public against inferior work and material.
2. To promote fair and ethical competition among industry members.
3. To encourage efficiency and promote a high standard of business practice.
4. To promote and encourage continued education in the HVACR industry.
5. To cultivate an environment of learning, and one of friendly relationships among members of the HVACR industry throughout the State of Utah.
6. To comply with Utah law that requires any person installing and/or servicing a residential or commercial gas appliance or combustion system must first receive training and certification (UCA 58-55-308).
7. To keep association leaders informed on important changes in your community and the industry at large.
8. To abide by the By-Laws of the Rocky Mountain Gas Association.
The RMGA By-Laws can be viewed on our website at: www.utrmga.org/membership/

 By checking the box on the RMGA membership application, you accept the code of ethics listed above.